Lake Oswego Hunt is proud to have Gail Stuart-Bowles as General Manager. Gail is an active Lake Oswego resident and well respected for her community contributions. Gail has a great depth of experience running large Equine facilities and schooling programs. As such, she has a dual-role here at Lake Oswego Hunt and serves as the General Manager of our historic facilities in addition to her role as the resident hunter/jumper trainer. Her training website is www.TullymoreFarm.com.

As the General Manager of Lake Oswego Hunt, Gail is responsible for the daily operations of the facility, overseeing everything from staffing needs, to the Riding School programs to the health and well-being of each of the individual horses boarded under the LOH roof. She reports directly into the LOH Board of Directors.

Gail has extensive barn management experience having managed facilities throughout the US and abroad for over three decades. She is committed to ensuring that Lake Oswego Hunt remains one of the premier equine facilities in the Northwest and an important part of the Lake Oswego community.

Gail is a Lake Oswego resident. She has three children and her husband, John Bowles, are active LOH volunteers.

Please feel free to contact Gail with any questions about Lake Oswego Hunt, its training programs and/or the specifics of membership. Gail's office is located just inside the club room (first door on the left). Members are also encouraged to share their concerns, questions and/or suggestions.*

*Reminder: Please do not interrupt the H/J lessons in progress.
