Emerging Rider Program[®]

The Emerging Rider Program[®] is designed to help developing Pacific Northwest equestrian talent access top quality clinics and instruction. Lake Oswego International Equestrian Center (LOIEC) is proud to sponsor LOH's Emerging Rider Program[®]. This program will provide a scholarship opportunity to cover LOH fees of specific clinics and training opportunities at LOH. Junior and amateur riders that are OR, WA, ID, MT or Northern CA residents may apply; trainers and professionals are not eligible.

Applicants interested in participating in this program must submit the following:

- 1 Complete the application found on our website (see May Greg Best Clinic & June Peter Gray Clinic); submit it with your essay and video no less than 30 days prior to the event you are applying for.
- 2 Attach an essay approx. 750 to 1,000 words describing why you would like to have this opportunity, and what it is about horses and riding that gives you passion.
- 3 A video no longer than 5 minutes of you riding in your discipline either competing or practicing.
- 4 A submission must be made for each qualifying clinic / training session that the rider would like to participate in; the clinician(s) will be involved in the selection process.

The charitable mission of the LOIEC is to enhance, promote and develop equestrian technique and equestrian competition. LOIEC is a 501-c-3 charitable non-profit benefiting the Pacific Northwest equestrian community; LOIEC is a separate organization from LOH.

LOH is committed to developing future national talent and to building a strong and vibrant equestrian industry in the Pacific Northwest.
