Emerging Rider Program®

The Emerging Rider Program® is designed to help developing Pacific Northwest equestrian talent access top quality clinics and instruction. Lake Oswego International Equestrian Center (LOIEC) is proud to sponsor LOH's Emerging Rider Program®. This program will provide a scholarship opportunity to cover LOH fees of specific clinics and training opportunities at LOH. Junior and amateur riders that are OR, WA, ID, MT or Northern CA residents may apply; trainers and professionals are not eligible.

Applicants interested in participating in this program must submit the following:

1. Complete the application below; submit the application with the essay and video no less than 30 days prior to the event you are applying for. Currently, the program is offered for the May Greg Best Clinic & June Peter Gray Clinic
2. Attach an essay approximately 750 to 1,000 words describing why you would like to have this opportunity and what it is about horses and riding that gives you passion. Please be specific about why you merit or need this scholarship.
3. A video no longer than 5 minutes of you riding in your discipline either competing or practicing.
4. A submission must be made for each qualifying clinic / training session that the rider would like to participate in; the clinician(s) will be involved in the selection process.

The charitable mission of the LOIEC is to enhance, promote and develop equestrian technique and equestrian competition. LOIEC is a 501-c-3 charitable non-profit benefiting the Pacific Northwest equestrian community; LOIEC is a separate organization from LOH.
