LAKE OSWEGO HUNT

LOH is proud to present

3 Time Olympic Competitor, Peter Gray, for a 3 Day Clinic

June 18-20, 2010

Lake Oswego Hunt is proud to offer an incredible clinic with one of the best all round horsemen in the world, Peter Gray. Peter has developed students throughout North America in dressage, equitation and jumpers, and eventing. Join us for Peter's three day clinic in June.

Friday, Saturday & Sunday: full day clinic format
Friday evening: cross country safety presentation

Peter competed in 3 Olympic Games, including the 1980 Alternate Games in Fontainebleau, France, the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics and in Seoul, Korea in 1988. He was short listed for the 1992 Barcelona Games, reserve rider for the 2004 Athens Olympic Games, competed in two World Equestrian Games and is an individual bronze medalist from the 1987 Pan American Games.

Peter is currently campaigning his first Grand Prix Dressage horse, and showed in the regular working hunters and the International Hunter Derby in Florida 2009. Peter trained in England for a total of four years and competed in every major 3 Day Event in Europe including the prestigious Badminton and Burghley CCI* competitions in England.

Born in Bermuda, Peter has been a resident of Ontario, Canada, where he has established his own training centers. One of his centers is at Stonehill Farm, former site of the prestigious Stonehill Farm Horse Trials. The other center is at Ocala, Florida, at Wentworth Farm, offering year-round training for horses and riders.

In 1991, Peter received special appointment to a task force formed by The Princess Royal, Princess Anne, to discuss problems of equestrian sport within the Olympic movement. Subsequently, he was elected to a four year term as a member of the Three Day Event Committee of the Federation Equestrian International.

Peter still actively competes at many upper level events, and is currently campaigning his Grand Prix Dressage horse, as well as showing in the regular working hunters and the International Hunter Derby in Wellington, Florida.
