

LAKE OSWEGO HUNT

I can't wait until I have a new saddle for lessons. "Best for the best" I always say!

The lady down the street has a lamp that looks like a 1950 fruitcake! She should sell that and the old lawn mower no one uses.

CityFair & Garage Sale

Sunday, May 23 at 9:00am to 2:00pm

Proceeds from all LOH sales will go toward the purchase of new Riding Academy equipment.

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC and admission is free.

Sellers can reserve a space and table at a nominal fee.

Go to www.LakeOswegoHunt.com for more information and the sign-up form. LOH will advertise via LO Review, Flying Changes, Facebook, CraigsList & more!

Sell your products, services, equestrian tack and typical garage sale items. Collectors welcomed. Artists and musicians encouraged!

Pony rides, refreshments and food will be available. Ample parking. Event held in LOH's indoor covered arena.

Since 1935 LOH has been serving the community. Generations of Oregonians have learned to ride at LOH and developed a love for the equestrian lifestyle. Today, LOH is a gathering place for families and friends. Each year we host events that draw several thousand visitors and competitors. We'd like to share LOH with you and show you how special it is. Come visit us! All our events are open to the public and everyone is welcome! Just visit www.LakeOswegoHunt.com our calendar of events and competitions, event details, address, directions, and Riding Academy lessons and summer camp.
